Privacy policy

We are big on privacy and how our details are stored and retained and we are sure our clients are similarly concerned. So here is the Privacy Policy in relation to Cairns Classic Tours (the Service).

We take your online privacy seriously. You may visit this site anonymously as often as you like without providing any personally identifying information (such as your name, address or email address). There are no cookies or tracking and we do not collect personally identifying information from you except when you specifically provide it, and we protect the information you provide.

We hereby promise and guarantee that:

1. We will never pass on your private information to a third party without your prior consent;
2. We will always act in accordance with current legislation and aim to meet current best practice with regard to the use of personal data;
3. Details you provide will only be seen by the owner and only copied to others with your prior permission and consent;
4. You will never receive unsolicited approaches from third parties arising from actions that we take;
5. Any personal information that you do provide to us (phone numbers, email address) will be retained and protected to the best of our ability from theft; and
6. If you make a payment for the Service, we do not receive any details of your credit cards or bank accounts during the payment process and your card number is never retained by us.
